The next membership meeting will be on October 26 at 7:30 PM at the Williamson Library at Grand Central Terminal. Meet at the entrance to Track 23 on the upper level at 7:00 PM or 7:15 PM to be escorted to the library, which is in a secured area. Late arrivals should phone the library at (516) 660-1972. A $5.00 admission fee is charged for non-members. In the event of serious inclement weather, check the website www.nyrre.org or call (516) 660-1972 for cancellation information.

Gary Grahl, assisted by Rick Carbone, present Gary's Super-8 color movies of the new (last May) CT Rail Hartford Line with a front-of-engine and platform view of every station from New Haven to Hartford and Springfield, many from opening day. 2) Yes, Pittsburgh has a subway! A light-rail line running from under the Allegheny River, underground through downtown, then across the Monongahela River bridge to Station Square. 3) The Pittsburgh area also features a great trolley museum in Arden/Washington, with great examples of equipment ranging from the interurban era to the time of the PCC. 4) (Time permitting) Other trolley and rail museums in western and central Pennsylvania.
